...to explore 3 stunning destinations:
Paris, Provence, and Nice

Paris

A Flirtatious, an Artistic, & an Exquisite invitation

A Flirtatious invitation

Place des Vosges, observe people passing by in a buzzing café, while enjoying your first delicious Croque-Monsieur.

A flirtatious invitation is having your first date with Paris.

An Artistic invitation

Montmartre and its magical Sacré Coeur, a classic French meal chez Bouillon Chartier, Notre Dame, the Latin Quarter, and the beautiful Musée d'Orsay by night.

An artistic invitation is an imaginary passage that leads to impressionist paintings.

An Exquisite invitation

A smooth morning cruise on the Seine while witnessing the iconic Eiffel Tower, the Champs Elysées and its grand view from Arc de Triomphe, and the majestic Louvre by night.

An exquisite invitation is to be first or last in locations when they are empty.

Provence

A Gourmet & an Imperial invitation

A Gourmet invitation

A train ride to Avignon and its impressive papal palace, and a delectable chocolate workshop.

A gourmet invitation is a moment to delight in culinary excellence.

An Imperial invitation

Arles and its Roman arenas, the village of Les Baux and its amazing Carrières des Lumières show, the Moulin de Castelas and its olive oil, and a swim under the imposing Pont du Gard.

An imperial invitation is to feel like an emperor in front of Roman architectural masterpieces.

Nice

A Coastal & a Creative invitation

A Coastal invitation

The Renaissance village of Saint Paul de Vence and its extraordinary cutting edge art galleries, the best ice cream in France, and Nice by night.

A coastal invitation is an access to all relaxing aspects of life.

A Creative invitation

Nice, its flower market, its Baie des Anges, and its gorgeous lagoon blue sea beach.

Your creative invitation is to be free to design your perfect day yourself.

Departure

An invitation to return home with personal invitations to give to others.
